

Gordon College of Education is looking for a
Program designer- project manager for its International Center

Job Description :

1. Designing international educational programs for grants
2. Project management of international programs
3. Writing progress and final reports in English for each program

Requirements:

1. English on a high level (speaking, writing and reading)
2. Academic Degree
3. Experience in managing and leading projects (vis-à-vis international funds such as ERASMUS+, World Bank, UNICEF).
4. Experience in basic digital and computer skills.
5. Project management skills
6. Hebrew at a high level
7. High interpersonal and inter-cultural communication capability

The announcement is for both men and women candidates – only relevant inquiries will be answered

Candidates should contact us by email at hrgordon@gordon.ac.il with their CV

Or to Professor Rhonda Sofer, Director of the International Center (rhonda@gordon.ac.il) to ask specific questions about the position.